

Christian Hadden is a highly skilled and experienced accounting professional and entrepreneur with a strong passion for making a positive impact in the social impact sector. With over 20 years of experience in finance and accounting, coupled with success in the solo-entrepreneur space, she brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to her role as a Principal Consultant.

With a deep understanding of operational management and a keen eye for detail, Christian assists small businesses in optimizing their operations, streamlining processes, and implementing effective strategies. She provides valuable insights, expert guidance, and practical solutions to help clients navigate the complex landscape of the social impact sector.

Christian is known for her exceptional analytical skills, strategic thinking, and ability to communicate complex concepts in a clear and concise manner. She is dedicated to building strong relationships with her clients, understanding their unique needs, and tailoring her services to ensure their long-term success.

Prior to her role as Principal Consultant, Christian has held various leadership positions in the finance and accounting field. She has worked with a diverse range of clients, including nonprofit organizations, social enterprises, and impact-driven startups. Her experience has provided her with a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities faced by businesses in the social impact sector.

Christian holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Finance from Michigan State University and a Master of Business Administration from South University. She is also a licensed life and health insurance producer in the state of Michigan and a Certified Professional Life Coach. In 2018, Christian founded Lucrative Unlimited (LU), a tax, finance, and business services firm so that she could bring the robust financial management practices she successfully implemented in multimillion dollar organizations to individuals, small businesses, and nonprofits.

Through LU, Christian holds an Advisory Board position for the Minority Freedom Community Fund (MFCF) and donates professional accounting services to both MFCF and a nonprofit organization based in Maryland.

Outside of her professional career, Christian seeks opportunities to give back and believes in using her skills to create positive change in society. She created and hosts a podcast called Lucrative Lifestyle Podcast that focuses on financial literacy and a healthy money mindset.

With her exceptional skills, extensive experience, and passion for social impact, Christian is committed to helping small businesses in the social impact sector thrive and create a lasting positive change in the world.
